WACONIA DEPARTMENT.

Lent has done away with many frivolities.

One by one the school "marm's" return from their labors.

Dr. Bray, and Gus Beckler passed through town on their way to Minneapolis, last week.

Rev. C. D. Smith of Harmony la., and his brother Theodore of Lakewood, visited friends in the village on Wednesday.

The most desirable companion a fellow could have about last Tuesday, was a good hot stove.

The season for over coats and buffalo robes has from all appearances just begun. Those in need of said articles will get rare bargains in all our stores, for the next two weeks.

Mr. Henry Gerdson, patronized our mill last week and wore a smile of pleasure when relating a pleasant surprise his Sunday school had given him the Sunday before. The children had patiently taught on the Sabbath, for so many years, and their parents, purchased for Mr. G, a beautiful easy chair, and together went to his residence, and presented this substantial token of love and respect.

Miss Smith opened school on Tuesday after a vacation of one week.

Miss Lena Kohler and Lola Mix have this week finished their schools.

Two young ladies from this vicinity are preparing to enter the spring term at Carleton College.

The recent advance in the price of wheat has brought many farmers in town from Watertown and Camden.

The worst blockade of the season occurred last week.

The sermon preached, at the funeral of Rev. D. Z. Smith, by Rev. Aaron Benson, is said to have been a very able discourse.

That Free Press editor seems somewhat exercised about the Waconia mail and throws out a broad hint which we do not fail to understand. Four days more to reach Carver from W. is nothing very wonderful considering the blizzards and blockades during the past two or three weeks. It took from Monday till Saturday for a letter to reach us from Young America, and yet we were not at all surprised at the fact. It may happen again.

Mr. Editor, and reporting to the "department" will surely remedy the fault.

Don't forget the fair on the 11th inst. plenty of cattle and birds will be on hand, and these are the important factors of a good fair.

Miss Smith, is drilling her pupils for an entertainment to be given at the close of the term, which occurs about the 21st inst.

Geo. N. Houghton, and Mr.

Gail, of Chaska, weathered the blast on last Sunday, and came over on important business.

A number of young men in and near town, are planning to go west and take homesteads in the early spring.

Don't forget to attend our next fair, which will be held the next day after the Watertown fair. It promises to be a lively one.

Lakewood.

The School in district No. 16, reopened on Feb. 28th after a week's vacation.

The farmers are taking advantage of the rise in price of wheat, by hauling a great deal, to Kern's, & to Chaska; still, some are holding on, expecting a further rise.

We have not had good sleighing for over a month. As soon as the roads become travelled, a little young blizzard makes its appearance, & drifts everything about.

What has become of Schreiner?

Last November, the young people Missionary Society, of Lakewood, was a vote dissolved, owing to general disatisfaction in regard to the management.

The money which was in the treasury, was by a vote donated to assist in building a church at the Moravian Mission in Paramaribo S. A., which is conducted among the Negroes. The treasurer of the society, who was opposed to dissolving, refused to send the money as ordered, until last Sunday, March 2nd, when about one third of the ex-members all opposed to dissolving, met in the church, and under the guidance of their leader, decided to divert the appropriation from the cause intended, and to divide it among other causes of their own choice, far less needy. The presumption and authority shown, is almost too much for their leader had better go to some other party, where his ignorance of Parliamentary laws will not be so readily perceived.

Rumors has it that J. Kern has offered his neighbor Mr. Sailer $3000 for his farm, but we have not heard if it was accepted. Jake must have plenty of money.

Dissolution of Co Partnership.

The Co partnership between A. C. Lassen,

Benedict Moller and Albert Warkentin under the firm name A. C. Lassen & Co., has dissolved this 1st day of February 1884, by mutual consent. Albert Warkentin retaining and A.

C. Lassen and B. Moller to carry on the Millwaukee collect all outstanding accounts and notes, and pay all debts of the firm A. C.

Lassen & Co.

THE FIELD OF HOPE.

Another Chapter on Dealing in the Dark.
Midnight Meeting of Duke de Richelieu and Princess de Ligne at the Hotel de la Paix.

Night combats have been frequent in Europe, and also in the United States. In 1821, in London, England, a barrister named Christie, and the editor of the London Magazine, Mr. Scott, fought a duel, which, as it was called, was a duel, and as it was called, was a duel, and as it was called, was a duel.

In 1721, Captain Chickley and Lieutenant Stanley, while disputing in a room in a town near Dublin, Ireland, agreed to fight with small swords in a dark room the following evening.

Major Campbell and Captain Boyd, officers of the Twenty-first Foot (British army), fought a duel without seconds in the garden of an Irish lord, at Novoy, a short time before midnight, in January 1807. During the dispute Campbell challenged his brother officer to fight at once, but Boyd refused that he should.

de Richelieu had flung through the heart of his twentieth victim, and the survivor, stooping over the body of the dead prince said: "Let us carefully bear his body to the tomb with honor to camp."

Some few years ago Major Ben Perle, then Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal, sent that paper the following account of a midnight duel upon an island in the Saranac River.

Among the many bloody duels of record as having been fought by Congressmen was one in which James McKim of Georgia, who had been and was afterwards a United States Senator, was the challenged party.

Leap Year Festivities.

The season of leap year parties is upon us, and the feelings with which these popular festivities are regarded by our votaries probably vary as widely as do their views of theology. They are those to whom there is always a certain savor of vulgarity about a leap year party, but to those who are less fastidious, and who are more of the joyous and festive spirit, it is a time of merriment and merriment.

Fortified Southern Pacific Land Grant.

Washington Special—By a vote of 7 to 4 the house committee on public lands agreed to report favorably a bill to fortify the grant contiguous to that portion of the Northern Pacific completed July 4, 1870. The vote was as follows:

For the bill—Messrs. Cobb, Payson, Anderson, Hendon, Smith, Lewis and State. Against—Messrs. Burdett, Oates, Van Rensselaer, and others.

When the committee met Tuesday morning both Messrs. Cobb and Anderson, who were the sponsors of the bill, were present.

Mr. Cobb, who was the sponsor of the bill, was present. He said that the bill was a measure of great importance, and that it was a measure of great importance.

Some people apprehend an export movement in gold coin due to the recent decrease in our exports.

The "balance of trade" has been running against us, and the withdrawal from this country of European holdings of stock securities that has been going on for some time, is now, it is said, to be followed by a drain of precious yellow metal itself. An opinion prevails, however, that the movement will be only slight and temporary at most, and will not bring a gold famine, as at present the New York banks have a large surplus supply of that metal.

The fruit crop of California is said to be not only of great value but promises to be more abundant than ever before. Good judges expect the crop of the present year will be worth not less than $10,000,000. Last year it reached about $10,000,000. It is creeping up to nearly half the value of the wheat crop, and in a few years it is predicted that it will be of greater value than the latter.

Bradstreet's reports most favorable showing for Minnesota and Dakota during the past week, only two or three small failures having been reported. It is the general belief that the heavy wave of failures for the several weeks preceding has spent itself, and the wholesale and retail trade are becoming more confident.

Prof. Cyrus Northrup of Yale desires having accepted the presidency of the State University of Minnesota.

come up before the jury in April next.

Judge Sargent's brother, W. G.
Sargent of Sabbath, Kansas, has been in town on a two weeks visit, and returned home last Monday evening. He was here in 1856 and naturally finds many changes in the country since his last visit.

Do not miss the splendid opportunity now offered you at Henry Young's store; all kinds of dry goods have been reduced to the lowest price. Cheviot Shirts, Alusline and Dress goods lower than you ever saw them before for cash.

CHASKA, March 1st 1884.

L. STRECKENS,
Co. Auditor.

Never Failed Yet.

I have sold the North Star Lung and Throat Balm for fifteen years and can say that I never handled a cough remedy that has given such general satisfaction. I guarantee every bottle I sell, and never had a bottle returned as not proving satisfactory.

E. P. SWEET, Druggist, 1260 Western Ave., Minneapolis.

In the County Jail.

Dr. Gerhard Van Poll, of Waconia was bound over in the sum of $1000 by Justice Meyer, and in default of bail was committed to Jail last Wednesday evening.

He strongly asserts his innocence and says in proof thereof that Dr.
Shillock, the Physician who examined the girl testified that there was no indication of violence or the accomplishment of forcible rape.

Disgraceful Fight.

A disgraceful fight occurred in one of our principal saloons last week. The instigators of the fight should be ashamed of themselves, and our saloon keepers be made to keep orderly houses or close up.
This is the 19th century, and law and order supposed to rule.

Cleveland Ohio.

The Daily Auspice says:
"Chief Superintendent of Police, J.
W. Schmitt, of this city, who has been in the service a quarter of a century, endorses St. Jacobs Oil as a pain-banisher. It cured him of rheumatism."

The Deering Twine Binder Still
At The Front.

We call the attention of the farmers of Carver County to call at our Warehouse to examine the valuable improvements on the Deering Binder for this season which makes it the best Binder sold in the County last season, and we stand ready to prove it will be the best sold this season. Farmers when you buy, buy the best.

FINNEGAN BROS.,
County Board.

The County Board meets on Monday the 17th inst. The financial statement of the years business will be prepared for publication at this session, and such other business transacted as may properly come before them.

Died.

A daughter of Christian Bender of Chanhassen, died at 10 p. m., March 9th, after an illness of only a few days. Cause of death was intestinal obstruction due to a twisting of the small intestines.

Dr. Dunsore of Minneapolis, was called in consultation by Dr.
Shillock, but the girl was too weak to admit of any operation for her relief.

DIED.

Miss Anna Skog, sister of our young friend Andrew Skog of Carver, died on Monday morning, aged 19 years, of typhoid fever.

Miss Skog, was an amiable young lady, with a wide circle of warm friends who deeply sympathized with her relatives in her death.

The funeral will take place at Carver on Thursday at 1 p. m. and the friends of the family are invited to the funeral.

Where is he.

Simoon Rink, a German polander, 32 years of age, left Winnipeg, Manitoba, July 24th, 1883, with the intention of securing a better home; he spoke of going to Washington Territory. All who know whether he is dead, or alive will please notify his grief stricken relatives. Address.

and other products to the outside world on last Friday.

young stock for a Milwaukee capitalist who is going to start a large ranch in Utah. He wants 200 head to fill his contract.

Arthur Dearborn the Elocution-ist entertained a rather small audience at the Grange hall Friday evening.

There is a well founded rumor about that Ed Faber is about to resign his position as depot agent in Hamburg and take charge of the Union Hotel, in this town. His parents intend to remove to the farm. It is also rumored that Miss Celia Rad-ow will be landlady in the Union House under the new order of things. We have not learned the exact day on which the "golden slippers" will be brought forth and worn.

Henry Heinke is on the sick list but was convalescing slowly at latest account.

Town election for the township of Young America, will be held at the school house in Norwood on Tuesday Mar. 11th.

A former resident of this vicinity named Thomas McCormick, a nephew of Mrs. Bernard Sweeney

Minneapolis, on Monday Feb. 25th, and was buried with appropriate ceremonies from the Catholic Church of Norwood on Friday last.

Watertown.

Miss Runge, who taught the Primary department of our public school during the winter has been engaged to teach the summer term of school commencing April 15th.
There will be but one teacher during the summer.

The machine agent is again roaming around the county like a roa-ling lion seeking whom he may devour. Joe Edwards sells the Minn-neapolis Binder, and all other kinds of farm implements. C. Merriman sells the Champion and Deane's Binders, while John Boylen represents Finnegan Bros., selling the Deering Binder. "You pay your money and takes your choice."

Why is it that Auditor Streuken calls an "extra" session of the County Commission on March 17th when the regular session is on the 15th?

Our Village Council have added large feathers to their caps by putting a license of $10, on billiard and pool tables. Correct agents, your action in this respect is fully sanctioned by a large majority of our citizens.

Cap. A. T. Clark was in town last week looking after the interest of the "Champion machine company."

Will some wise one please inform us why we cannot have a deputy Sheriff on this side of the County?

Two of our fast drivers were finished for last driving on billiard and pool tables. Correct agents, your
action in this respect is fully sanctioned by a large majority of our citizens.

Saint Patrick's day, next Monday, March 17th will be duly celebrated here. Hon. J. K. Callen, W. E. Cullen and others will deliver addresses. At 7 o'clock in the evening the Hollywood Dramatic Club will give an exhibition of the drama entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in Kohlers hall.

There are still a few who have not paid up their subscriptions to the VALLEY HERALD.

Mr. John Boylen, will work in the interest of the Finnegan Bros., selling their machinery this coming summer.

Kohler's Masquerade, was a grand success, there being about forty masks in attendance.

Our public school closed last Friday, and the scholars gave an exhibition in the school house on Saturday evening, which was a credit to both scholars and teachers.

C. Kohler, is making improvements in his hotel, by putting in a new ice box and repainting his bar room.

Rev. G. H. Frabert, Lutheran, of Minneapolis, preached a fine sermon in the Swedish church last Friday evening. We are informed that Mr. Frabert will hold service here twice a month hereafter. We sincerely hope that our citizens will take interest enough in this matter to have this arrangement perfected.

A Post G. A. R. will be organized in Watertown on Monday even-Farmers Convention.

The farmers of Carver county are hereby requested to meet in mass convention on Saturday the 15th day of March 1884, at 12 o'clock p. m., at the Town Hall in Carver.

choose delegates for the Farmers State Convention, which takes place at St. Paul on the 15th, 19th and 20th inst.

MANY FARMERS.

Minneapolis.

Plenty of snow and cold weather.
Wool is higher, dealers advancing their prices, or holding it over for another year.

Pork higher, and in good demand, with scarcity of supply.

Trade, wholesale and retail, reviving, with a good outlook for the coming year.

Building is going on lively in all parts of the city and real estate is firm.

Everybody is talking about our local politics, George A. Pillsbury is the Republican nominee for Mayor. He is a good one, and will pool a large vote, but whether enough to secure his election, will depend upon the withdrawal of the people's candidate J. T. Wyman.
The prohibitionists have endorsed him and it is now evident they hold the balance of power without their co-operation. Mayor Ames, has a good show if the Democratic candidate, "Doc" knows it and is making the best use of his advantages.

W. D. Washburn and wife are home from Washington to spend a few days. The reporters are plying him with all sorts of questions and among the rest, this:
"What are Arthur's" chances for the next Presidency? He has no chance at all, not even the possibility of a nomination. Of the "Sault Ste. Marie," however he is confident, affirming that active work will be begun on the first 60 miles within ten days. Washburn generally knows whereof he speaks.

Carver Co., is well represented in our city.

Johnnie Griffin, formerly of Carver, is now the polite and affable clerk in E. A. Faber's drug store.

W. H. Mills and Son, are reported doing a good business in North Minneapolis, with a Feed Mill and a Feed Store.

Charles Blomquist Esq., has sold out in the boot and shoe business, to join "the innumerable caravan" of real estate dealers. Charlie has the push and energy and will do what he can for those who consult him before they purchase.

E. Holmes & Co., General Commission Merchants, 219 Wash. Ave., South, have become one of the most successful firms in the city.
Give them a trial, and you will be pleased.

Is approaching.
Snow is disappearing.
Roads are impassable.

Geo. Mix & lady, in town last Sunday.

Small streams, gullies and swamps are filling up with water.

Dr. B. F. Allen, will be at the Merchants Hotel April 24 to remain three or four days only.

We publish the proceedings of the County Board in this issue, which excludes a lot of other reading matter.

Widow Catherine Kunz, of Lakewood, sold her 80 acre farm to John Gruen of the same town for $2,675.

The snow has almost all disappeared in this vicinity, although there is enough of it left in the woods.

Several new legal cases appear in this issue, one a mortgage sale and the other a summons in a divorce case.
We call the attention of our readers to the lot.

We call the attention of the tax payers of the County, to the report of the board of Auditors regarding the condition of the County Treasury. A good share of the money in the treasury belong to towns, villages and school districts. See report for particulars.

Some person or persons, evidently well acquainted with the premises of old Mr. Kaufmann of this village, broke into his premises last week during the night time, thinking to make a big haul. They were easily disappointed as they only secured a trifle over $4, in money and a lot of mortgages and notes of no value to them.

It is reported that Mr. Henry Schroers, has disposed of his brick building situated east of the Merchants Hotel on Second street, to parties from Morris, Minn., who will open a butcher shop in same.
How is that for Chaska only four butcher shops. There must be "millions in the business."
